You are applying for appointment to a position which may have unsupervised access to children under sixteen years of age, developmentally disabled persons, or other vulnerable adults during the course of his or her employment or involvement with the County. As provided by Washington State Law under RCW 43.43.830, applicants must provide a disclosure statement of certain civil adjudication, conviction records or crimes against persons. And disciplinary board final decisions prior to appointment to positions which are directly responsible for the care, supervision, or treatment of children, developmentally disabled persons, or other vulnerable adults. As provided by RCW 43.43.815, Clark County may conduct a pre-employment evaluation of prospective employees who, in the course of employment, may have access to County money or assets.

Clark County will make background inquiries of the above noted disclosures. Such inquiries may be made to State and/or Federal law agencies. Information obtained from the disclosure statement or from the background inquiries will not necessarily preclude appointment, but will be considered in determining the applicant's character, suitability, and competence for the position applied for and may result in denial of appointment. The use of these inquiries will be restricted to decisions on possible County appointment.

If you wish to be considered for appointment, you must complete and sign this Applicant Disclosure and Authorization for Background Inquiry Form. Failure to complete and sign this form will disqualify you from County appointment. Additionally, if you do not live in Washington or have lived in the state for less than three years, you must submit to fingerprinting for the purpose of conducting a Washington State Patrol and Federal Bureau of Investigation background check. If selected for the position, this information may be collected periodically in the future, in compliance with application state laws and grantor agency requirements.

State background identification shall satisfy future record check requirements for the applicant for a two(2) year period. A copy of the background inquiry information from State or Federal law enforcement agencies will be available to you upon request. Clark County is not liable for defamation, invasion of privacy, negligence, or any other claim in connection with any lawful dissemination of information under RCW 43.43 and will not disseminate this information to a second party in compliance with RCW 10.97.

State and Federal background checks will be completed at Clark County's expense.
